Invitation data

In order to participate in Novabase General Assembly, you must previously receive a personalized invitation.

The received invitation will have all the necessary information for your authentication and validation.

02 Invitation structure

The invitation to participate in Novabase General Meeting Assembly is divided in 3 parts:

- Identification of the participant
- Information for direct access to the meeting
- Identification of the room where meeting will be held for indirect access

This manual identifies, when necessary, where the information sent should be placed.
